Profile of Federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Funding: Oklahoma

The Oklahoma State Advisory Group (SAG) serves as Oklahoma's federally-mandated state advisory body. The group administers the state's Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (JJDP) funds and provides the Governor, state legislature, and other policymakers with recommendations for improving and supporting the state's juvenile justice system. The SAG helps determine how funds granted by the U.S. Department of Justice Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) should be expended, and reports regularly to the Governor and state legislature on the status of the state's compliance with the four core requirements of the JJDP.¹

The federal allocation of grant funding to Oklahoma has decreased dramatically in recent years. Nationwide, during the 16 years that the JJDP went unauthorized, federal juvenile justice funding decreased by nearly 42%.² In Oklahoma, meanwhile, between FY10 and FY19 alone, the state experienced a 68% reduction in its formula and block grant allocations.³ In FY10 the state received $638,600 through the Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (JABG) program. For the past five fiscal years, however, that sum has been zeroed out in the federal budget. Oklahoma also received $84,945 in Title V funding in FY2010. That funding source, however, has been earmarked for non-JJDP purposes in recent years. The lone remaining source of formula and block grant funding, Title II, has also diminished. In FY10, Oklahoma received $674,000 in Title II funding. In FY19, that figure had decreased to $444,765.

Formula & Block Grant
Funding FY10:
$1,396,945

Formula & Block Grant
Funding FY19*:
$444,765

Decrease of 68% so far this decade.

*This number only includes Title II funds; JABG has been zeroed out & Title V funds have been earmarked

¹ The four core requirements of the JJDP are: 1) deinstitutionalization of status offenders, (2) separation of adults and juveniles in secure institutions, 3) jail removal, and 4) reduction of the disproportionate number of minority youth who come into contact with the juvenile justice system (disproportionate minority contact, or DMC). Federal Dollars in Action:

In addition to using its federal allocation to monitor and ensure compliance with the four core mandates of the JJDPFA, Oklahoma's SAG has prioritized researching and developing evidence-based programs that can be utilized state-wide. The SAG has specifically determined that prevention programs are the most successful in reducing juvenile offense rates.
